

LUDWIG-
MAXIMILIANS-
UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

FAKULTÄT FÜR BETRIEBSWIRTSCHAFT
MUNICH SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT
INSTITUT FÜR RECHNUNGSWESEN UND
WIRTSCHAFTSPRÜFUNG
PROF. DR. THORSTEN SELLHORN

Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München \(LMU\) is one of the most renowned and largest universities in the German-speaking area, and LMU School of Management is a leading faculty of business research and teaching. The Institute of Accounting, Auditing and Analysis \(Institut für Rechnungswesen und Wirtschaftsprüfung\) is part of LMU's Accounting Cluster.

We are excited to be part of the new trans-regional Collaborative Research Center \(CRC\) 266 "Accounting for Transparency" funded by the German Research Foundation (Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft – DFG). As a team of more than 80 senior and junior researchers, we will conduct a broad and ambitious research program into the determinants and consequences of corporate transparency in markets and society. The initial funding period of CRC 266 is July 2019 through June 2023; it is renewable for two further four-year periods.

We invite you to join the CRC 266 team! Two positions on LMU Munich's downtown campus will open up on November 1, 2019, but later starting dates are possible. Contract period up to June 2023.

Post-Doctoral Researcher (f/m/d) (A07) (full-time, salary grade max. TV-L E13 according to "Tarifvertrag für den Öffentlichen Dienst der Länder"

You will contribute to the CRC's subproject B04 "Real Effects of Transparency" led by Joachim Gassen (Humboldt U, Berlin), Jens Müller (U Paderborn) and Thorsten Sellhorn (LMU). As part of the CRC network, you will be building your research portfolio and working towards high-impact publications. You can pursue the German postdoctoral degree "Habilitation" from LMU.

Your Profile: You are interested and experienced in conducting empirical work on the effects of reporting practices on firms' and stakeholders' decisions in the real economy. You have completed a doctorate in business administration or a related field of study. You have the skills and motivation to work in the above fields, as well as initial publication experience. Advanced knowledge of empirical methods, very good analytical skills and English language skills, being a good team player, an independent way of working as well as a high level of commitment are also desired.

Pre-Doctoral Researcher (f/m/d) (B04) (part-time 75%, salary grade TV-L E 13 according to "Tarifvertrag für den Öffentlichen Dienst der Länder"

You will be working within the CRC's subproject A07 "Ambiguity, Learning, and the Diffusion of Reporting Practices" led by Katharina Hombach (Frankfurt School of Finance & Management) and Thorsten Sellhorn (LMU).

Your Profile: You are interested and qualified to conduct empirical work on firms' mandatory and voluntary reporting practices and the role of social learning. You have completed a Master's degree in business administration or a related field of study. You have the skills and motivation to work in the above research fields. Advanced knowledge of empirical methods, very good analytical skills and English language skills, being a good team player, an independent way of working as well as a high level of commitment are also desired.

Please feel free to contact us for more information!

Our Team: Your workplace is centrally located in Munich (LMU main campus) and is very easy to reach with public transport. LMU's Accounting Cluster works internationally in an open and cooperative working atmosphere. Our research in the fields of financial accounting and reporting, management accounting, corporate governance and auditing, financial analysis, valuation, and taxation contributes at the highest scientific level to solving current practical problems. We present our work on international conferences and publish in leading international journals. You will be closely tied into the CRC 266 team.

Apply now!

We seek to fill these positions as soon as possible. Severely handicapped applicants will be preferred if they are otherwise of equal suitability. There is the possibility of part-time employment. The application of women is welcome. Please send your application documents in electronic form only by October 31st to Claudia Haimerl \(haimerl@bwl.lmu.de\).